

2nd HSU-IfW-Workshop in Development and Environmental Economics

Call for Papers/Call for Research Plans

Professur für Umwelt-,
Klima- und
Entwicklungsökonomik

Prof. Dr. Andreas Fuchs

Dear colleagues,

We invite your submissions of full papers or abstracts to be presented at the HSU-IfW-Workshop in Development and Environmental Economics at the Kiel Institute for the World Economy, on Friday, June 7, 2019.

The HSU-IfW-Workshop in Development Economics and Environmental Economics brings together researchers from both institutions to discuss their work in development economics, environmental economics, and climate economics broadly defined.

The second edition of the workshop will be hosted by the IfW Research Area "Poverty Reduction, Equity, and Development" and take place at Haus Weltclub (<https://goo.gl/maps/ZNNwbeNaViu>). We will start at 10:30 am and end the workshop in the evening with a BBQ directly at the workshop venue.

The new IfW President Gabriel Felbermayr has accepted our invitation to deliver the keynote speech.

Interested participants can submit a full paper for a paper session or an abstract for a discussion session that features presentations of work in progress and research ideas. We invite you to submit a full paper or abstract to sebastian.schmidt@hsu-hh.de by April 1st, 2019. Decisions will be sent out by April 8. Participants are expected to act as a discussant of another paper. Please send us also an e-mail if you would like to attend without presenting a paper.

We look forward to seeing you in Kiel!

Andreas Fuchs and Sebastian Schmidt
