DETAILS

A workshop on organizational resilience, crisis responses, digital transformation & cyber security – built on survey and linked data connecting firms, employees and households.

DATE 26–27 Nov 2026 Thursday & Friday	VENUE DIW Berlin SOEP research infrastructure	DISCIPLINES Open call Economics · Sociology · Management · Political Science

Economic crises, geopolitical tensions, and rapid technological change are reshaping firms, labor markets, and households. This workshop brings together empirical research on resilience, crisis responses, digital transformation, and cyber security — with a focus on survey and linked data covering firms, employees, and households — and showcases new data resources from the SOEP research infrastructure.
