

Leslie-Maryse Melchiors, M.Sc. Psych.

Research Interests: Risks and side effects of psychotherapy, psychotherapeutic expectation management, informed consent, social dynamics in psychotherapy

Academic Education & Professional Experiences

- 2020-present Ph.D. candidate at the Chair of Clinical Psychology, Helmut Schmidt University Hamburg (HSU), Germany
- 2019-2020 Off-site Master's thesis in the field of Psycho-oncological Care Research, Institute and Outpatients Clinic of Medical Psychology, University Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf (UKE), Germany: Information needs of cancer patients with minor children and pilot-evaluation of the information booklet "Cancer with child" (very good)
- 2018-2019 Semester abroad, National University San Diego, Courses: Forensic Psychology and Human Sexuality (very good)
- 2017-2019 Research assistant in the field of patient safety; Project KOMPAS; Institute and Outpatients Clinic of Medical Psychology, University Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf (UKE)
- 2017 Research internship in the field of Psycho-oncology; research section "Children affected by parental cancer", Institute and Outpatients Clinic of Medical Psychology, University Medical Center Hamburg-Eppendorf (UKE)
- 2017-2020 Master of Science Clinical Psychology and Psychotherapy (very good), Medical School Hamburg
- 2015-2016 Research assistant at the Chair of Social Sciences, Department of General Psychology, University of Mannheim
- 2013-2017 Bachelor of Science Psychology (good), University of Mannheim; Bachelorthesis: The influence of action vs. no-action and mood on moral judgements

Scholarship

- 2018-2019 PROMOS-Scholarship
- 2018-2019 National University Scholarship