

ENGLISH FOR EDUCATION

Course Leader
Sylke Schulte

ENGLISH FOR EDUCATION MODULE

“Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world.”

Nelson Mandela

COURSE CONTENT

The course will focus on psychological, sociological and philosophical challenges in education in the 21st century.

- Communication processes
- Concepts and components of identity
- Forms of bias
- Equity, Diversity and Inclusion
- Social movements

WHY SHOULD I TAKE THIS COURSE?

- You may be an educational science or psychology student and interested in the course themes.
- Everyone is welcome though. No previous knowledge is required.
- You may want to improve your English skills, expand your vocabulary and review grammatical structures.
- You may want to read about, understand and discuss a broad range of topics.
- You are a critical thinker and enjoy lively debates.
- You want to know more about the language of education and psychology in English and discuss the fields' challenges in the 21st century.

METHODOLOGY

- Reading, watching and listening to relevant source material provided by the course leader
- Writing an ongoing portfolio
- Taking part in regular debates and discussions
- Defining and analysing key issues
- Looking at practical examples, current challenges and solutions

PRACTICAL DETAILS

- Course leader: Sylke Schulte, Room 1125, e-mail: schultes@hsu-hh.de
- With this course you can attain 4 credit points towards your Bachelor, refresh your SLP or simply improve your English.
- Entry requirement: SLP of 3332
- Hours: 3 terms (autumn 2024, winter 2025 and spring 2025)
- Mondays 11:30-13:00; room 1156a
- Maximum of number of students: 14

BACHELOR CREDIT POINTS

To obtain your 4 Credit Points, you must:

- Attend class regularly and do the class work assigned
- Achieve at least a level 3 in oral and writing skills
- Oral exam: presentation and discussion on a course related topic
- Written exam: continuous assessment of a writing portfolio

HOW DO I JOIN?

- You must register for one of the courses via Campus Management (CMS), the deadline is Oct 1st
- For all questions concerning the timetable and Campus Management please contact Dr. Novo (room 1124, novo@hsu-hh.de) or Frau Henning (melanie.henning@hsu-hh.de)
- For questions about the course content, contact Sylke Schulte (schultes@hsu-hh.de)