

Phd-course, March 18-21 2024: Representative claims and democratic innovations.
University of Oslo, in collaboration with Centre Universitaire de Norvège à Paris – CUNP,
FONDATION MAISON DES SCIENCES DE L’HOMME, 54, Boulevard Raspail 75006 Paris

Course convenors: Signy Irene Vabo and Jan Erling Klausen.

Monday March 18 (JEK)
1000-1015	Welcome, introduction, practical information Signy Irene Vabo (University of Oslo) and Marek Thue Kretschmer (CUNP)
1015-1200	Lecture (1) Dr. Marte Winsvold, Institute of Social Research, and Prof. Signy Vabo, University of Oslo Democratic innovations and elected representatives
1200-1245	Lunch
1300-1345	Students introduce their phd projects
1345-1530	Lecture (2) Prof. Sarah Ayres, University of Bristol, UK Informal governance, representativeness and democracy
1545-1800	Student presentations (2)
2000	Dinner (hosted by CUNP)

Tuesday March 19 (SIV)
1000-1145	Lecture (3) Prof. Angelika Vetter, University of Stuttgart Looking for “added values” from democratic innovations
1200-1245	Lunch
1300-1345	Student presentations (1)
1400-1530	Lecture (4) Prof. Brigitte Geissel, Goethe-University Frankfurt a.M. On the formalization and institutionalisation of democratic innovations
1545-1800	Student presentations (3)
2000	Dinner

Wednesday March 20 (JEK)
1000-1145	Lecture (5) Camille Bedock, Sciences Po Bordeaux. Democratic innovations and conceptions of the political system: a comparison of elected representatives and citizens
1200-1245	Lunch
1300-1430	Student presentations (2)
1445-1615	Lecture (6) Christian Lo, Nord University Small municipalities, big issues?
2000	Dinner (hosted by CUNP)

Thursday March 21 (SIV)
1000-1145	Lecture (7) Dr. Alessandro Sancino, University of Milan-Bicocca

	The Public Management of Democratic Arenas - Key Issues on Who, When, How and Why
1200-1245	Lunch
1300-1415	Lecture (8) Jan Erling Klausen, University of Oslo How do politicians relate to citizens' participation?
1415-1445	Debriefing and farewell

Tuesday April 2 (on zoom)
1000-1145	Recorded lecture (9) with facilitated assignment Prof. Eva Sørensen, Roskilde University Democratic representation in turbulent times
1145-1215	Break
1215-1315	Lecture (10) Prof. Ann-Karin Tennås Holmen, Stavanger University Citizens engagement and co-creation
1315-1500	Group work 4 groups – feedback on paper revisions
1500-1600	AOB
	END OF COURSE