

Photo: German Armed Forces/Robert Habermann

Civil-Military Interaction (M.A.)

for leaders and executives working at the civil-military interface

Develop individual skills and leadership competencies in inter-cultural and inter-sectoral networks.

APPLICATION DEADLINE 31 July 2021

Profile: M-CMI prepares leaders of the armed forces and executives of Governmental, Non-Governmental- and Independent Organizations for careers across the spectrum of Civil-Military Interaction. The inter-organizational study programme is offered by the Helmut Schmidt University/University of the German Armed Forces Hamburg (HSU/UniBw H) in cooperation with NATO's Civil-Military Cooperation Centre of Excellence (CCOE) in The Hague, The Netherlands. The programme offers a reflexive learning environment combining practical experience and scientific inquiry. The study programme is conducted in English.

The M-CMI is ideal for expanding networks and developing expertise while pursuing a professional career.

Content & Structure:

- Compulsory Modules: Leadership & Management, Empirical Social Research, NATO CIMIC Higher Command Course and Field & Staff Worker Course.
- Elective Modules: Strategic Concepts, Human Rights, International Policy Analysis, Cross-Cultural Studies, and Conflict Management.
- Preparatory academic writing seminar and master thesis.

(*) Fulfilment of admission criteria is subject to a case-by-case assessment.

Degree: Master of Arts (M.A.).

Duration: 2 years (60 ECTS).

Mode of Study: The format with short blocked in-classroom or virtual seminars combined with problem-based learning phases is ideal for working professionals.

Admission requirements (*):

- Bachelor and/or Master degree with a minimum of 240 ECTS.
- Minimum 2 years working experience with at least one year of management responsibilities.
- English language skills (C1).

Civil-Military Cooperation Centre of Excellence

CMImaster@cimic-coe.org
www.cimic-coe.org/about-cimic/master-of-arts-cmi/
www.cimic-coe.org/branches/cic/MCMI/

Zentrum für Wissenschaftliche Weiterbildung

zww-info@hsu-hh.de
www.hsu-hh.de/weiterbildung/en/study-programmes